THEATRE NOMINATIONS AND AWARDS

Rita Moreno High School Musical Theatre Honors

FTC Students competed against schools from all over Northern California in San Jose at the Rita Moreno High School Musical Theatre Honors recently. This awards competition recognizes outstanding achievement in high school musical theater north of Santa Barbara. The production, Into the Woods, was nominated in several categories and competed in the final regional competition in May, 2016.

The production was unique in that it was originally staged in the round in the theatre's "black box" theatre. This means that the audience surrounded the stage on all four sides that was to transport the guests "Into the Woods." In the opening scene of the show, a small boy discovers a magical book within a large trunk, when he opens the book, the narrator steps on stage and begins the story of Jack and the Beanstalk, Rapunzel, Little Red Riding Hood, Cinderella, and other beloved characters. Since the story comes to life in his imagination, the actors also had to "play pretend" in the show. The princes galloped on stage astride croquet mallets, stagehands created doorways out of rope, actors used the flapping pages of a book to signify birds taking to the sky, and the mysterious man used slight of hand magic tricks to amaze the audience. After the show was nominated, the cast prepared a seven minute medley to take to the final competition. Caitlin Knapp was the assistant director for this production. The director was Lisa Sandoval; also, She is the Artistic Director at Franklin High School since its inception.

The nominees were:

Best Overall Production, Into the Woods

Kyle Domalaon-Best Actor as "The Baker"

Mario Fong-Best Actor as "Jack"

Carolyn Theiss-Best Actress as "Baker's Wife"

Megan Ruthford-Best Supporting Actress as "Jack's Mother"

Joseph Dennis-Best Supporting Actor as "The Wolf"
